Tired of keeping secrets that could get her killed...

As long as Courtney lived with Jared Crenshaw, she was able to keep his secrets and stay alive, but now that he's dead, what she knows could get her killed. Hiding from the good guys can be just as dangerous as running from the bad guys.

Protected by a man who seems too good to be true...

Just when she thinks she has nowhere left to run, an investigator with the Arkansas State Police helps her find a new place to hide. Shaw Bennett seems to be everything Jared wasn't, but can she trust him? He is, after all, just another cop.

Her life threatened by the father she never knew...

Shaw's Landing seems a great place to disappear for a while until the night terrors begin. Are the visions she sees her imagination, the product of her increasing fear, or something more sinister? Has the curse of Haskins blood followed her?

Can the promise of love overcome the ghosts of the past at Shaw's Landing?
