The Disciplinarian Emma Allan

Seeing George being made to dress as a woman filled Danielle with dread. There was no doubt that Alexandria had something equally testing for her and, from the way the brunette looked at her naked body, she thought she knew what it was.'

Alexandria Steiner uses a unique form of discipline in the running of her advertising agency, which no one will talk about. When employees Danielle Hancock and George Lovell make a costly mistake, they soon find out for themselves just how unusual and stringent that discipline can be.

Plunged into a world of domination and submission, both are forced on a journey of sexual self-discovery - with surprising results. For they can never return to the routine of their previous lives after experiencing the harsh, yet thrilling, regime of the disciplinarian . . .
