Cuba, I Remember You / Cuba, te recuerdo (English and Spanish Edition) Oscar M. Ramirez-Orbea
A bilingual collection of 14 short stories, all in Spanish and English, based on the author's experiences of childhood before and after the Communist revolution. Includes Appendix for educators wishing to use the book in Spanish or English foreign language classes. Lots of nostalgia for those who knew Cuba in the 50's and 60's and plenty of humor for readers in general. Includes many period family photographs that illustrate the stories. The stories explore themes of family life, childhood friendships, school life, Cuban Catholic culture, the passing of loved ones, and the effects of the dramatic political events that forever changed Cuba in 1959. Each story is narrated in facing pages of Spanish and English text. They are all told with a good deal of humor but also with a deep feeling of nostalgia for a beloved land and recounted with a great love of family, both living and dead. For those who lived in Cuba, the collection will evoke bittersweet memories of their own families and lives on the island; for others, it will make them experience, through the eyes of a native, everyday life in Cuba before and after the Revolution. The collection has been created not just with Cubans in mind! It is definitely for the general reader, especially one who enjoys plenty of humor, a little history, and stories of family life. Una colección bilingüe de 14 cuentos cortos, todos en inglés y en español, basados en las experiencias del autor antes y después de la revolución comunista. Incluye una Apéndice para enseñantes que deseen emplear el libro en cursos de inglés o de español como idiomas extranjeros. Muchísima nostalgia para los que conocieron a Cuba en los cincuenta y los sesenta y muchísimo buen humor para todos los lectores en general. Incluye también numerosas fotografías de época que ilustran los cuentos. Los cuentos exploran la temática de la familia, las amistades de la niñez, la vida escolar, la cultura católica cubana, la pérdida de los seres queridos, y los efectos de los dramáticos eventos políticos que para siempre cambiaron a Cuba en 1959. Todos los cuentos se narran en español y en inglés en páginas opuestas. Se revelan con un gran sentido de humor pero también con un profundo sentimiento de nostalgia hacia una lejana pero queridísima tierra. Y se muestra también en ellos un gran cariño hacia todos los parientes queridos, ya estén vivos o ausentes. Para los que vivieron en Cuba, la colección les traerá recuerdos a veces penosos y otras veces alegres de sus propias familias y de su vida en la Isla. Para los demás, les hará experimentar, a través de los ojos de uno del país, la vida cotidiana en Cuba antes y después de la Revolución. ¡Esta antología se ha creado no solamente para los cubanos! Se ha considerado en todo momento al lector en general, sobre todo aquel que aprecia el buen humor, un poquito de historia, y los cuentos de la vida en familia.
