Just That Easy Madeline Kirby

Sean was the prom king, David was a nerd. But years later, when the two meet again in graduate school, they're worlds away from what they had been in high school. After years as a closeted athlete, Sean is ready to live life on his own terms – and for him that includes a relationship with the handsome and prickly David Harper. David can't believe that someone like Sean would actually be interested in him.

When they finally connect, it's intense, erotic, and surprising for both of them. Will their insecurities keep them from giving their romance a fighting chance? Or will they be able to admit that sometimes it really can be just that easy?
