Straight Talk About Professional Ethics Kim Strom-Gottfried

Ethics is a complex and high-stakes area of professional practice. Too often, though, when practitioners think of ethics, they think of high-minded philosophical discussion far removed from the challenges of their daily lives. Straight Talk about Professional Ethics offers a different take on ethics, one intended to make ethics accessible to experienced practitioners as well as students. Professor Strom-Gottfried examines the ethical standards governing social service practice as they might be applied in a variety of situations.
