Write Your Best Book: What Every Author Should Know Deb Vanasse

Books are forever. So why not make yours the best? Readers want books they'll love. Books that stay with them long after they've finished. Books that make them want to read more from the same author. No amount of marketing will make readers love a book that's poorly conceived and badly written. If you want your book to get noticed—if you want to find readers—it needs to rise to the top. It needs to be your best book.

Whether your form is fiction or nonfiction, whether you publish on your own or through a traditional publisher, your book will benefit from the perspectives, strategies, and advice of well-published author and editor Deb Vanasse. A practical guide to writing books that rise above the rest! "Some of the best advice available today on the craft of writing." Tanyo Ravicz, author of Ring of Fire "An excellent resource for writers who are serious about their work." Stephanie Cole, author of Compass North
