The African Origin of Modern Humanity Gert Muller

This book presents all the latest evidence concerning the African origins of modern humanity. For 200 000 years Africa was at the forefront of human progress. The author smashes all racist misuse of evolution. He also takes a detailed look at the implications of an African origin. 1) It essentially means that the first people everywhere were of African appearance. Ancient Egyptian hairstyles suited to Afro hair appear in Europe 30 000 years ago! 2) Only those outside the tropical and sub-tropical regions became of non-African appearance. The first civilizations arose in the sub-tropics! 3) Humans of all backgrounds have nutritional and lifestyle requirements directly resulting from our African origins! This is a little known fact! This is where African history should truly start! Wonderfully written and well-illustrated.
