How can I aim high and reach my goal? What kind of home do I want to create? What can I do to make my marriage as wonderful as I want it to be? What is the best way to educate my children? How can I balance home and family with public responsibilities? In these pages -- filled with practical advice, the wisdom of our Sages, and classic stories -- Rebbetzin Esther Greenberg offers women the tools with which to succeed in their aspirations for all dimensions of their lives. Born in Lithuania, raised in Gateshead, England, a teacher in Israel for over thirty years, Rebbetzin Greenberg (née Shakovitzsky) dedicated her life to inspiring, enlightening, and re-educating Jewish women all over the world. In her series of talks on the Jewish home, she encouraged thousands of avid listeners to strive for greatness, to develop their inner strengths and to create the kind of vitally joyous home that is the goal of every Jewish wife and mother. Granddaughter of the Maggid of Minsk, daughter of the Gateshead Rav, wife of a leading Torah scholar, and renowned for her career of public service and outreach, Rebbetzin Greenberg spoke with experience and authority. Now, for the first time, her message, of eternally true Torah wisdom passed down through the generations from woman to woman, appears in print. Thanks to this book, women everywhere can learn how to develop their gift of womanly wisdom to the fullest. This is a book mothers will give their daughters, teachers will use as a platform for further discussion, and women everywhere will share with their friends.
