“We’re locked in a building, trapped underground, surrounded by things that want to kill us ... and you want to turn out the lights?!”

What can you do when the only thing more terrifying than being trapped in the dark is to be caught in the light?

After a covert project goes horrifically wrong, a group of survivors struggle to escape an office building before it becomes their tomb. In an environment where death waits behind every door, not all will make it out. As survival becomes less and less certain, the only way out is to face the greatest terror of all.

“There Is A Light That Never Goes Out” — a new horror novella from Justin Cawthorne, author of Graves. Dedicated to anyone who is scared of the dark ...
