Vanessa Winship: Sweet Nothings by Vanessa Winship (1-Jul-2008) Hardcover Vanessa Winship During his long stay in Turkey, photographer Vanessa Winship was fascinated by the issues related to borders and belonging. So she had become familiar with the habits and customs Turkey yet far removed from his English habits, are the schoolgirls in their little blue dresses that continue to fascinate. Wherever she traveled in this country traumatized by the guerrillas, it crosses these girls. Became a symbol of the Turkish state, they are nevertheless only girls. To fight against the traditional values of the region who want to keep girls at home, the government launched a campaign to enable the poorest families to enroll all their children. Thus, the number of girls attending schools has slowly increased. Sweet Nothing is a series of portraits of these schoolgirls. In the photographing, the author was deeply touched by the gravity mixing and fragility of its smaller models, but especially by their incredible natural.
