When Maria interviewed Professor Tom Bryson for the student newspaper, she had no idea at the time, how this would lead onto a most bizarre occurrence of events that included three dead University students, and a further missing student. From that one interview, she became involved in the lives of Tom, his ex-wife Yvonne, and their children. Each meeting with Tom resulted in events that had the potential to send Maria running far away from Tom, but incredibly brought them closer together.

Tom Bryson is a body-language expert. He's asked his advice on the case, and later viewed as a potential suspect. The case has others brought in for questioning and throughout the course of it, puts the things closest to Tom at great personal risk. The hunt is on to find the identity of the serial killer and their murder-weapon, before they kill again...
