Pointed Poems: Tools for Teaching Conservative Thinking Craig Wieland

Pointed Poems gives a conservative's perspective in provocative rhyme. Each chapter begins with the author's overall view of a subject through a section called "Points to Ponder," and then a poem or rhyming story is presented using graphical illustrations to further drive the point home. In its 31 chapters, with over 400 illustrations, Pointed Poems covers a number of subjects including politics, personal responsibility, debt, thrift, racism, prejudice, patriotism, and more.
