Great voices such as Wesley, Fletcher, Asbury, and Booth issue the clarion call to holiness--a call that should echo into the next generation. The Way Forward comprises 20 of the most influential writings on holiness. Each selection is preceded by an introduction written by a well-known Wesleyan scholar, pastor, or emerging voice. The introduction offers a brief sketch of the historical writer, outlines his or her core message, and notes the importance of the writing for today's holiness church. Extend the legacy of the greatest holiness writers to the next generation by introducing them to the classic writings found in The Way Forward.
