Bitter Moon Saga: Book Three

Outraged by the destruction of innocent lives and the threat to his family's safety, Tarrant Shadow and Aylan Stealth-Moon ride to Dueance, the capital of Clough, with a desperate plan: Tarrant will impersonate Yarri's dead brother, Ellyot Moon, and infiltrate the regent's council to help change to the government's policy toward the Goddess's chosen from the inside.

But from the very first night, Tarrant and Aylan are pressed into service in the shadows of the ghettos, fighting for the lives of the brutalized people within. It's a bitter job, made more so by close scrutiny and mockery from Consort Rath, the ruler whose policies have created the discrimination and cruelty wreaking havoc in their country.

Tarrant's only bright moments come from Aylan, whose love and loyalty never falter, and the hungry, compassionate minds of the younger regents. Believing that all they need is a worthy song to follow, Tarrant sets about leading them to accomplish the salvation of their country. But not even Tarrant can be everywhere at once. When faced with one disaster too many, he realizes one man alone cannot right the wrongs of an entire government?not even Triane's Son.
