Relationships are hard. Far harder than the fairy tales we grew up with led us to believe and in a world where everything has become disposable, the time has come to assess our lives and determine if the people within have also ceased to be as useful as they once were to our ultimate happiness. We also need to inwardly reflect upon whether we have the fortitude to work through the tough times thereby allowing the good times to be that much sweeter. This book is designed to assist you in doing just that.
