Taylor Lopez is tired of always being the dependable and reliable older brother. He moves to Lake Tahoe to be a nature photographer after quitting his job, selling his apartment, and breaking off his engagement. When he meets a brawny, blue-eyed, blond stranger on the beach, he can't help but want to get closer to him. The only problem is he didn't plan to fall in love so soon. Is Taylor willing to give up his new found freedom for a chance at the love of a lifetime? Jackson Banks is living the dream. He's a swim instructor at a hotel resort next to one of the most gorgeous lakes in the world. He has everything a man could want except the two things the polar bear inside him needs the most. A mate and cubs. As an unmated shifter nearing his fortieth birthday, Jackson is losing hope that he will ever meet the man that's fated to be his mate. That all changes when he meets Taylor, a city slicker with a refreshing enthusiasm for life who excites and soothes the bear inside of him. But can Jackson convince Taylor to let him into his heart, or is the pain of past betrayal too great to overcome? This is a standalone story with a happy ending and no cliffhangers. This story includes explicit love scenes and violence.
