Images of Greece have always conjured up ideas of sex, athleticism and a good life. Admittedly, that was in the days of the ancient civilization, but what is Greece like today? Joe, Brad and Clint, three good friends go off to the islands of Greece for a well-deserved holiday of fun, but will they find the sex, athleticism and good life that Joe had once read about in his studies? From the time they arrive in modern Athens, the frenetic hustle and bustle of city life explodes in their faces and soon they are being driven around to taste the good things of life. Once they arrive on the island of Mykonos, things get better, hotter and downright sexual. It is only once they fall under the spell of Apollo, a muscular, young Greek man, that they begin to question their attraction to him. Why does this man exude so much control over them and why are they so willing to do anything he wants, yet enjoy it in the process? Are they his slaves or is there an aspect of their characters that they're unable to control and in so doing, become willing sexual admirers who lust after him? Let The Slave of Apollo transport you into their world and decide for yourself if you'd be able to resist Apollo, or any other of the young Greeks!
