Harper Lee: American Novelist: The Real Story of Her Life, Works, and Her Death Nikolas Jr

Harper Lee: An American Novelist is the story of one of America's greatest novelist, Harper Lee. The book is a detailed account of this very important and influential figure in American history. The story is a "classic rags to riches" one and begins with her childhood growing up. Though Harper Lee did not have any formal writing background or family heritage, she was inspired at a young age to become a writer, and has masterfully crafted social issues into her work, making her novel a indispensable contribution to American literature. Regularly read by students nationwide and loved by readers everywhere, Lee has become the recipient of national awards such as The Medal of Freedom.

Despite such global success, Lee remained relatively unnoticed with her life and work shrouded in mystery - that is until now.
