"Air Force Two has gone down ..."

On a bright Saturday morning in May, the nation is jolted by the news that the Vice President of the United States has perished in a plane crash. After a respectable period of mourning, President James J. Hartman begins the arduous task of vetting and choosing a successor. But as White House correspondent Gideon Burnett soon learns, forces intent on undermining the administration are plotting to influence the President's decision - by any means necessary. What is their ultimate agenda? And can Burnett expose it in time before he becomes a target for elimination?

In the tradition of "Seven Days In May," "The Parallax View" and TV's "24." "Process of Elimination" weaves a fascinating web of political intrigue, media zealotry and corporate skullduggery into a taut, savvy thriller with pulse-quickening suspense and scathing social commentary.
