Youth Ministry Internships: Finding an Internship and Getting Started In Ministry Brian Bennett Finding church internships and becoming the intern you want to be can feel overwhelming. Where do you start? How do you prepare? What habits are going to help you succeed in your internship? How will you find your first long-term ministry role? Brian experienced these questions first as an intern himself and then as a Student Ministry Director who has interviewed, coached and equipped youth ministry interns over the last nine years. In this book you will experience his passion for helping young and emerging leaders develop the attitudes, skills and habits needed to succeed not only during their internships, but also for the long-haul of ministry. This straight-forward, constantly practical, from the trenches guide will help you find internship opportunities and avoid major mistakes that can derail your internship. Youth Ministry Internships will help you develop the strong foundation you will need to thrive in ministry.
