Final Breath Of One Tavares Jones

Mathieu and Giselle Yunson suffer a devastating hit to their marriage; so irreconcilable, it spirals for separation – that may well see him out of her life and her out of his, for good. He, unable to stomach what no man should be forced to experience, day in and day out, wants nothing more than for their lives to split. And she, realizing his words had been true, all along, fights not just to see their vows remain together as one but to hold the family the two of them dreamed of in piece, like a perfect picture. When all tries and all options fall flat, promise resorts them to a clause in their marriage agreement – to see if thirty days of counseling helps press them through differences and frustrations against one another.
