The Big White Book with (almost) Nothing In It Mike Brownlow

"Hello, what's this?" I hear you say,

"Now hang on just a minute,

I can't see any pictures here,

This book's got NOTHING in it!"

An empty book? With blank pages? Really? How can that be? But wait! Here's a flap to lift and another flap and another. Hiding under each flap or squeezing between, over, and under the pages or chasing each other on a turning wheel or even cutting corners with a pair of pop-up scissors is a most engaging cast of child-friendly characters. Complete with a handful of bookworms and a sweet and scruffy dog, this book proves that everything is not always as it seems!
