When Tina, a waif-like, college freshman hears her parents can no longer afford to pay for her education and she will have to leave university, she is devastated. She is desperate to find a way to stay.

At first she dismisses a joke by her room mate that she should auction her virginity online but the more she thinks about it, the more she realizes her cherry is the only thing of value she has to sell.

Will she be able to go through with it, when the leading bidders are a man old enough to be her grandfather and a fat Arab businessman with a huge dick? Will the experience change her forever?

This story about a young woman coming of age and having to make hard decisions, will excite and arouse you.
