Veteran's Day (Library of Holidays) Leslie Kaplan

This series will add to the enjoyment of these celebrations by explaining the history behind each holiday. From Ireland in the fourth century to modern-day America, from Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania, to Arlington National Cemetery, students will come away from this series with a greater understanding of the traditions behind these widely celebrated holidays. These books correlate to the history, social studies, and geography curricula, as students learn about the history and customs of different holidays.
