Do you ever feel like you give and give and give as a mom? Do you wonder if you are enough? If so, you are not alone. Sometimes we all need reminders about our worth, our value, and why being a mom, while a tremendous amount of work, is beautiful life-changing work. And often it's not in the big things but in the little, ordinary, and yet extraordinary things.

"The Dear Mom Letters" is a collection of letters for moms. There are letters of encouragement for the days when you feel like you're failing, letters for days when social media overwhelms you, letters for when your home is full of little ones, letters about keeping perspective, and letters that celebrate the bravery found in moms.

Rachel Marie Martin addresses the real heart issues that moms deal with and not only talks about the emotions, but also leaves you encouraged. These letters can be read in one sitting or simply be the go-to book on those days when you're ready to throw in the towel. Through these pages you will be inspired and encouraged knowing that you are most definitely enough.
