Hi, this material was written because LOVE has inspired me to do so, because I have come to find out that, love doesn't only have one side to it; him, but instead love is more than you, think you know; and so, as you take the journey through this book of poems here, there you will come to find out that, all along you, thought you knew; plus know all about love, when you didn't; so take the time to search your heart; mind as you enter into this book of mines, for love himself as well have; has written a few lines and rhymes here too, for he has something in store for you too. And so, if you all wants to know more about him. The father who have; has; also had created love, well then, this is where you can start to understand of who he is, and also what he is all about. for he, LOVE Almighty has taught me a lot, and there you will come to find out, all along he was; is not limited, but he is plentiful in many ways. I love you all; shalom. And so, thanks LOVE for the love; also assistance in schooling me about you and your lovely ways.
