The Christian Father: what he should be, and what he should do Rev. L.A. Lambert

Rare are instruction manuals for how to be a Catholic Father. Even fewer match the volume of practical good sense, winning simplicity, and deeply religious lessons. It is no mere ideal father we have here, aspiring after unattainable or fanciful saintliness. It is a father such as God intended all fathers to be, such as should and might be found at the head of every Christian family.
