An island fragmented by years of war. A horrifying enemy poised to descend. A warrior determined to unite the people to battle. Ishar sets out from her native Haaldyn homeland, riding toward the far southern region with a declaration of peace and desire for alliance from her father, Ryen of the Haaldyn. But can there be unification of the Haaldyn, Britai and Lute peoples. Uncertainty lies with Varyk, the mysterious leader of the Britai and his shadowy soldiers known only to outsiders as the Raanan. Undecided of the reception she will receive from those who were once her enemy, Ishar only knows that if the island of Alsaar is to survive the coming Tourna invasion...unity must prevail.
