The Best Part About Getting Lost Gabriela Sposito

In the memoir The Best Part About Getting Lost, Gabriela moves to Houston to begin her first year of college. Although the idea of leaving her hometown and starting a life in a new city had initially filled her with excitement, when she arrives she is taken aback by how different Houston is from the place she grew up. The Best Part About Getting Lost recounts her adventures and experiences as she transitions to a new stage of her life. It also describes how the simple events such as getting lost on her way to the grocery store as well as more pivotal ones like falling in love help her to build memories and to feel at home in a strange place.
